RED CELL MEDIA SHOOTS FIRST WEB PILOT

NEW YORK, NY, July, 2006 – Red Cell Media, a New York City based new media company, shoots its first web pilot, “Clue,” a murder mystery.

When a series of synchronized suicides are witnessed in the middle of the night, a beautiful woman (Julie Ordon) is unknowingly thrust into an increasingly dark and sinister game. Together with her friend (Omyhra Mota), she is pulled deeper and deeper into arcane waters with torrid currents that may be more than she can handle.

The solution to every mystery starts with a single... CLUE.
